COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

Saturday, November 10, 1906.

D. E. O'KEEFE.....EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

All aboard for Salt River.

Gillett is our next governor.

Hurrah! for Gillett—He's the man we wanted.

Chamberlain is still the cock of the walk.

Happy are they who don't want what they can't get.

How surprised little Willie Hearst must have been Wednesday morning.

There will be quite an excursion up Salt River before the week ends.

The verdict of the Jury has been renderedand his majority is something like 1500.

Though the pen may be mightier than the sword, it can't come up to the scratch when pitted against the voters X.

J. J. Bullock is the proudest man in town. Having two opponents he won by a majority of nearly a thousand. Hurrah for Bullock!

Let us at once forget all that has passed in the campaign of a personal nature. The men we have elected are to a man good men and they will do their duty to their constituents. Support them in their work and encourage their efforts in every way possible and our county officials will prove themselves full worthy the votes cast for them.

GREAT REPUBLICAN VICTORY

San Mateo county has reason to feel proud of the splendid support it has given the Republican county ticket and can be congratulated on the magnificient vote it has given the state ticket and Gillett. It was a hard campaign and the election of all the Republican candidates is a source of pride to the managers of the local campaign.

The great political fight centered in the sherif's office. The handsome majority of Robert S. Chatham shows his great popularity throughout the county. He made a splnedid campaign and the big vote he received at Pescadero demonstrates how he is liked in his home town. His opponent Frank P. Roach made a gallant fight but the overwhelming Republican majority in county was something that he could not overcome.

P. P. Chamberlain's big vote shows he has not lost any of his old time popularity. He carried most every precinct and in many cases ran far in advance of his tickett. In many instances he received large pluralities in Democratic strongholds.

Johnnie Johnston received his usual majority for recorder. He made a thorough campaign. He had a strong and active opponent in John Morey who made a cmoplete canvass of the county.

The surprise of the election was the big vote received by J. H. Nash for clerk. He ran ahead of his ticket in every precinct in the county and carried his home town, San Mateo, by 600. Outside of Mr. Hayward and Mr. Jury he received the largest vote on the ticket. This is a record for any young man to be proud of. Mr Nash has certainly demonstrated his popularity.

The fact that C. D. Hayward received the largest vote on the ticket demonstrates that the people know when they have a good official and desire to retain him in office. Mr. Hayward has reason to feel proud of his vote. It is an endorsement of his official acts.

It was stated during the campaign that the close contest of the election would be between C. L. McCracken and H. F. Butts for tax collector. Both made hard campaigns and the fact that Mr. McCracken won by a substantial majority speaks volumes for his popularity. Mr. Butts made a good clean fight. The friends of Mr. McCracken rallied to his support and won in many doubtful precincts.

The contest for superintendent of schools was also a great battle. Mr. Cloud winning by a safe majority. Miss Nellie Casey made a splendid canvass and made a good impression on the voters wherever she went. Mr. Cloud is an energetic campaigner and succeeded in carrying a few doubtful precincts that landed him a winner.

W. H. Underhill after a vigorous campaign won by a splendid majority. He carried his home town by nearly 400 which demonstrates that he is liked by his neighbors. He also received a ularge vote on the coast.

J. J. Bullock, the only candidate having two opponents, received his usual majority only falling a few short of the big plurality he received four years ago. He carried nearly all the precincts of the county. Te will conduct the district attorneys office in the future as he has in the past.

Though the guns of the Democratic party were trained on Dr. H. G. Plymire and everything possible was done to accomplish his defeat he won by a large majority. The northern end of the county almost gave him a unanimous vote. He certainly can be proud of the splendid support he received. His majority was well earned.

Will B. Gilbert's big vote in the county shows his popularity. He made no canvass, hence his election is all the more to be proud of.

The election of J. H. Coleman, supervisor of the Second township was looked for. The big vote he received is an endorsement of his acts and a rebuke to those who during the campaign said nasty things about him. He has everything to be proud of the support given him by the Second township.

E. A. Shaw went down to defeat for supervisor in the Fifth township after one of the hardest campaigns ever fought in that township. He was defeated by Dr. Blackburn by 15 votes. The latter made a vigorous canvass of the voters.

R. H. Jury was given a large vote for the assembly in all parts of the county. He got the second largest vote of the ticket. Jury is indeed a great campaigner.

S. P. After Cars

The Southern Pacific is on a car hunt. Every freight car on other lines or not in use is to be coralled and put in service. All along the Pacific coast the agents have been instructed to keep open eyes for freight cars, and even to let business go to get the cars. The embargo which the officials of the Southern Pacific put on all freight bound for San Francisco is still operative, and theree are no immediate prospects of clearing the matter up. Julius Kruttschnitt, director of operation and maintenance of way of the Harriman lines, has issued orders to all points on thee lines for agents to get the runaway cars, and put them into servic. The Southern Pacific is now confronted by the situation of having more shipping than can b handled, and the ageents have been instructed to take an empty car before a carload shipment.

The freight agents, especially along the northern part of the coast, where the cars are likely to be on other lines, have been instructd to put in as much of their time as possiblee looking over the other roads and trying to locate cars belonging to the Southern Pacific. The result is already gratifying, as 200 or more cars have been added to the available equipment of the Harriman lines. since the orders have been issued.

Never in the history of western railroading have the roads faced such a frieght congestion as exists now. It is reported that the Northern Pacific has over 10,000 loaded cars it is unable to move, and the Southern Pacific, on account of the congested condition of affairs, has been forced to put an embargo on all freight bound for San Francisco except perishable. Other roads in the northwest are in bad shape, and one of the main reasons ascribed for the congestion has been the heavy moving of lumber. It has ben estateed by officials that if five additional railroads should be built to the Pacific coast there would be more traffic than they could handle by the time they were completed.

The Southern Pacific has a total equipment of about 44,000 freight cars, and when the new orders hav beeen delivered, will have about 65,000 freight cars available for service. It is thought that by the time the new cars have bn delivered the traffic will have increased enough to leave the road in about the same shape as at present. Strenuous efforts are being made by the officials to get the new yards to be used as freight centers in shape. The work at Roseville is rapidly progressing, and sufficient track will be laid there to take care of many of the freight trains which ar now blocking the sidings.—San Mateo Leader.

A Holiday for Palo Alto

Late announcements from the committee having in charge Palo Alto's holiday Nov. 15th, when the new street car line in that place will be opened, show that it will be a time long remembered by the people of the University town, and by all who visit there on that day. The people of the churches, to which the entire proceeds of the day on the cars are to be given, in fact all the people of the town, will give a hearty welcome to every visitor. The merchants have co-operated in the movement, and will give reductions on many of their goods bought on that day.

The games, which as has already been announced will takeplace on a large field at one end of the car line, will be made attractive to old and young. There will be a prize for every event. Fat men's races, three legged races, etc., will make amusement for both participant and spectator. All will be asked to enter. The cars, with their young lady conductors and holiday appearance, will make frequent runs to the field.

The baloon ascension will be a striking feature of the day's program. An experienced aeronant will ascend to the height of nearly a mile in the air, and thne make the daring drop with a parachute. The exact time of this performance will be announced later, when it is determined what time will best suit the convenience of all.

Palo Alto schools are to close for the whole day, and by the children and young people the holiday will be especially enjoyed.

San Jose, Santa Clara, Lawrence and San Mateo people will be given the privilege of a fare and one third for the round trip to Palo Alto on Nov. 15th. It furnishes an exceptional opportunity to visit not only the town, but Stanford University, with its beautiful quadrangle, now nearly repaired, except for the church and Memorial arch, and with the picturesque remains of the ruined library and gymnasium.

C. E. HANSEN ESTATE

During the course of the probate proceedings in the matter of the estate of C. E. Hansen, deceased, the matter camex to an abrupt stop and was continued for several weeks, that the widow of Mr. Hansen might ascertain definitely whether an instrument left by him was his will or not. Mrs. Hansen had petitioned for letters of administration, and during the taking of testimony Judge Buck was appraised of the existence of an inment in the writing of Mr. Hansen which might be his will. He asked whether this purported will was in Mr. Hansen's handwriting, and Mrs. Hansen said she could not be positive that it was or was not, but was not prepared to testify positively i was not. Judge Buck immediately stopped the proceedings, that the alleged will might be examined in order to ascertain whether it was such an instrumen as would pass for a will orn ot. In his lifetime Mr. Hansen was considera very well to do, but the petition for letters of administration shows only some stock in the Savings and Trust Company of San Mateo county, the Redwood City Commercial bank, and some unimproved property in San Francisco. Judge Fitzpatrick represened Mrs. Hansen and Jas. T. O'Keefe was present in the interest of several of Mr. Hansen's brothers.

Bay Shore Cut Off

Five tunnels along the bay shore cut-off have been completed and the line will soon be opened. It is expected to have trains running along this part of the line by the first of the new year, and as soonaspermission arrives from Washington the work on the Dumbarton bridge will be started.

The completion of the bay shore cut-off will be of vast importance to the service in the Santa Clara valley. The new route will reduce the present run from San Francisco to San Jose five miles and will eliminate all the high arc curves along the east side of the peninsula through South San Francisco to San Bruno, where it joins the main line. The old road runs to the west of the peninsula, and instead of tunneling under the hills, it has a series of grades for several miles, which makes fast speed impossible.

One plan of the new service is to reach San Jose in an hour, making stops only at Palo Alto, Redwood City and San Mateo. At the present rote the trains cover the route in one hour between stations. It is thot' that with the curves eliminated and a good many of the stops cut out the distance can be made less than an hour.

No word has been received as yet from the War Department concerning a decision on the Dumbarton bridge, and as soon as permission is given the work will start and will be hurried to completion.

Fortune Paid for Labor

San Francisco pays out a fortune every week to labor. There is being disbursed every week to the army of labor nearly $750,000, and this will go on, so far as anyone can now see, for five years to come. Of the 18,000 buildings destroyed by the fire and which in time will all be rebuilt, engineers and contractors estimate that from 10,000 to 12,000 structures will be of brick and concrete. These take time. The restoration of streets and sidewalks, of sewers, gas, water and electric appliances, and municipal buildings, the creation of churches and music halls, of fine residences and libraries and school houses—all these mean steady work on a long job and an uninterupted flow of coin.

Death of Martin Byrne

Martin Byrne, formerly a resident of San Mateo, died in Oakland Saturday, Oct. 27th. Mr. Byrne was a horseshoer by trade and for many years worked for Brown Bros. He married Miss Nellie Galvin, who died about eighteen months ago, leaving three children. At the time of his death he was working for the government shoeing horses. Mr. Byrne will be remembered by his former acquaintances in this county as a whole-souled, good natured man who made friends wherever he went. His death was the result of quick pneumonia.

No More Stop overs

The Southern Pacific company has called in all stop over tickets. Henceforth travelers must buy their tickets on the day they start a journey, as the tickets that will now be issued are good only for two days.

This change took place on November 1st, and throughout the Southern Pacific system only continuous trip tickets are now on sale. The object of this new arrangement is, it is supposed to prevent ticket scalping.
